Donation to St Christopher's Hospice from Penguins Against Cancer

Dear Charlie and Pat,

I am writing to thank you very much for Penguins Against Cancer's kind letter and incredibly generous donation of £5,000 to St Christopher's, in memory of Neil McNair. Please accept this letter as confirmation of receipt.

Your letters are always a pleasure to receive, and your donations will continue to be put to very good use. As my colleague Katie updated you last October, your support will help us carry out the wide range of care we provide to almost 4,000 patients across South East London every year – many of whom will have a cancer diagnosis, including roughly 80% of the 800 inpatients we look after annually.

Please also pass on our thanks to Charlie Gush, Jane Gibson (many congratulations also for running the London Marathon!), Louise Aaron, Ben Thorpe, Jamie Jackson, Ben Challacombe, and the others of your flock mentioned in your letter. We are touched by your enthusiastic support and dedicated fundraising – and hope your veteran rugby team managed to hold onto the Scanlan Cup for another year!

Your website in particular is delightful, and certainly sets itself apart from most charity websites!

Thank you again, and please accept the very best wishes of all of us here at St Christopher's Hospice.

Yours sincerely,

Sophia Kendall
