Dear Charlie

I am writing to you today, to say a massive thank you for your donation of £5,000 proposed by Pete Davis in memory of Emma Lancashire, for the completion of the Bermondsey to Bruges sponsored cycle ride by the Penguin Peloton of 28 riders, including Rob Lancashire. To set up this kind of event takes time and dedication and we are so grateful that you have done this in order to support St Luke's. We never take this for granted, and appreciate all that you do to help us maintain services for patients and families when they need it most.

These gifts have enabled St Luke's to care for patients and their families within your local community, providing end of life care for over 40 years. This has only been possible with the generosity of wonderful people like yourself.

On behalf of all of us, our patients and their families, thank you for your support.

With very best wishes,

Peter Ward
